Mr. Montague said the defendants will say in their bill: "This is denied, and the defendants assort that this is both legal and highly proper. We claim that it was the best thing that could possibly be done."

As to the allegation of the bill that the bank by this action has sought to dissolve itself and to wind up its affairs, Mr. Montague said that the Southern Interstate Bank has called a meeting of its stockholders for June lat to approve the action of the directors, and that it is known that a majority in interest of the stockholders as well as a majority of the stockholders interested in this suit will approve the action of the board."

Report Concerning Loans Made
Owing to the impossibility of preparing the necessary papers in order that the application might be heard, and becayse the attorneys had other engagements, it was deemed best to fix to-morrow as the day for argument of the application for a receiver.

Attorney John A. Lumb has made an examination of the books of the bank as he was authorized by the court yesterday to do. Among other things, Mr. Lamb states that the books and papers of the bank show that large sums have been loaned to officers and former officers of the American Guild has been reduced to about $40,000, by turning over to this examination, has made the following loans: He has discounted at the bank the notes of J. Osho, of Philadelphia, for $23,000, payable at the rate of $500 per month, the last note that and retired. The books show that Dr. S. Galeski, president of the bank and supreme governor of the guild, according to this examination, has made the following loans: He has discounted eighteen notes for $500 each, making a total of $3,000, with the American Guild as security.

terfield and Manchester were accorded a very enjoyable evening yesterday, when they were entertained by the Richmond members of the Daughters of the Confederacy and treated to a speech by Colonel John Lamb. Muste was furnished by the Glee Club of the Manchester High School, who acquitted themselves exceedingly well. Captain John Lamb made an eloquent address to the members of the Wooldridge Camp, Confederate Veterans, with whom he was closely associated during the war. Captain Lamb was in command of the sharpshoaters of the Third Regiment, and the Wooldridge camp was in the Fourth. Captain Lamb made an earnest talk to the old fellows, recalling many reminiscences of life on the field and reviowing the great work accomplished in those days by the members of the Wooldridge camp.

Almshouse Committee.

A majority report of the Almshouse Investigating Committee was adopted in the meeting held Monday night, and is now ready to go to the City Assembly. The report shows five counts of negligence or misconduct against Superintendent Allen, three of them being the charging for himates who were not at the institution, one for the charging of washing that was not done except by the Inmates themselves, and the last is in connection with the fence surrounding the almshouse. The committee found, according to the evidence, that hands employed at the cemetery, as well as the superintendent, worked on the fence, and that the money, with the exception of a small portion paid to Preston Austin (colored), was received by the superintendent.

The meeting was characterized by Marmony. Chairman Abbott gave up the chair, which was then taken by Mr. Adkins. Attorney Wells was present in the Interests of Mr. Allen, but Mr. Allen did not come.

It is probable that a minority report to be made by Messrs. Hooker, Ferguson and Robertson, will be framed by to-morrow night. On the same night the committee will meet to prepare a report to go to the joint session of the Assembly and Aldermen, to show why the committee should suspend Mr. Allen.

Those present at the meeting Monday night were Messrs. J. T. Abbott, A. A. Adkins, L. R. Brown, M. A. Campbell, A. R. Hooker, W. D. Ferguson and B. M. Robertson, City Attorney Page and E. H. Wells, autorney for Mr. Allen.

Women as Well as Men Are Made FORMER MINISTER

Bladder Trouble.

Ridney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessensambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulless soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys, If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh, or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, dependupon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fiftycent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a Home of Swamp-Root, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co. Binghamton, N. opens in Richmond on Thursday of next week. The preliminary work has been done, and well done, and now the arrangements for the entertainment of the veterans and celebration of the events of reunion week are well under way.

Decorating began yesterday in all parts of the city, many prominent and conspicuous buildings being adorned with the colors and flags of the Confederacy. Mon were also at work on the official decorations, which grace the line of march of the parades. The ingenious scheme prepared by Chairman Peter J. White, as outlined in Sunday's Times-Dispatch, for the decorating of the line of march, has been much commented on, and will be a notable part of the great parades.

The plan to have registers for each of the States which linked its fortunes with the Confederacy will prove a very popular one, and will give to future generations a record of inestimable value. Already many old soldiers have signed the block to be used for the signatures and records of Virginia exconfederates.

Chairman Gordon a rather pathetic letter, expressing his regrets that he cannot attend the reunion.

Here is an extract from his communication: "I see there will be a registration of old Confederate soldiers to commence in Richmond May 30, 1907. I have been confined to my bed and room for the last seven months with anhammatory rheumatism. I am very sorry I will not be able to be with my old comrades.

* * I will send you my name and command and will ask you to be so kind as to register my name. I was captured a short time before the surrender of General R. E. Lee and did not get home until after the surrender, and was supposed to have been killed in battle. * * My company was raised from Orange and Culpeper counties. There is none of my old company anywhere in this section. The last I heard from Culpeper several years ago there were only a few living. J. R. Strother, father of the boys that shot Bywaters, was a lieutenant in my company. He died a few years ago."

The request of the old soldier will be gladly complied with, and his name will be duly inscribed on the register, as he has, a magnificent record. Captain Almond was wounded three times—at Malvern Hill, near Richmond. Plymouth, N. C., and Gettysburg. Pa.

sented Captain Brown on the field, and issued the tents. In a fow minutes squads of men were told off, and all went to work in earnest. Company streets began to appear in regular formation, row on row of white tents starting out into the moonlight. The men of Company F in khaki, and the Howitzers in blue service uniform, raced each other up the company streets, tent after tent rishing at a word of command from the sergeant in charge.

Work of a Night.

The affair was evidentity thoroughly enjoyed. Stories of Manassas and Camp Alger were swapped, snatches of songs rose here and there, smothered occasionally as a great wall of canys enveloped the singers. When the bugle rang out the order to return to quarters, liften rows of tents, sixteen to a row, making eight company streets in regular military formation, streets in regular to a row, making eight company streets in regular military formations.
